If you don't already know all about Ancestry now is a great time to check it out: <http://www.chinookarch.ca/elibrary/eservices/ancestry-library-edition>. Ancestry Library Edition is a research tool offering the most comprehensive, international genealogical information available online, with billions of indexed names and over 9,000 collections. Ancestry contains thousands of databases of family information from sources like censuses, vital records, immigration records, family histories, military records, court and legal documents, photos, maps, and more. Please note that in order to use Ancestry Library Edition, you must be at a Chinook Arch member library location.

Seeds!

Start Gardening from the Beginning

While it is fun to shop the garden centres for ready to go plants the world of seeds from catalogues to in the ground is a whole other experience. Then there is the whole other world of propagating from seed!

Janet Melrose, Calgary's Cottage Gardener, will be talking soil and seeds as we learn about: seed catalogues; some different techniques of seeding and growing on your seedlings; tips & tricks and pitfalls to avoid; And then how to give your new plants a successful launch come the growing season.

Wednesday, April 4
6:30pm - 8pm
