

Milo Library Archives

We are happy to announce we have our genealogy research computer station up and running. Soon it will have Neil Godkin's research added for public use. Many thanks goes out to Mike & Alison Collins for the donation of the printer for the station and for the donation of the monitor for our brand new Archives computer which was sponsored by the Milo & District Rec Board thru the Vulcan County Cultural grant.