

Book Donations to Milo Library

While staying at home have you been spring cleaning and you now have boxes of books that you don't know what to do with?

Milo Library is pleased to accept donations of materials less than five years old in good condition.

We may also consider:

- older books by popular authors,
- books missing from a series,
- classics,
- books by local or regional authors,
- literary award-winning books.

We will issue a tax receipt for a portion of the suggested retail cost of the book.

If your books do not meet the above criteria, please consider alternate sources for your donation such as shelters and thrift stores. Thank you. Please contact us at 403-599-3850 to arrange for your donation.
